The Cathy Buffington Memorial Scholarship is awarded by The Foundation for Addictions Nursing to one IntNSA member* who is currently employed as an Addictions Nurse. The applicant must not be a student; hence not eligible for the Lois Widley Scholarship. The Buffington Scholarship winner is a nurse who would not be able to attend the Annual Conference of the International Nurses Society on Addictions without the financial benefit of the scholarship, which covers the cost of conference registration and a $100 stipend. The stipend will be presented at the conference. The 2011 conference will be held in Tucson AZ, September 7-10, 2011 (www.IntNSA.org). Deadline for applications is June 1.

Eligibility:

1. Current employed in Addictions Nursing; not a full time student in a nursing undergraduate or graduate program.
